Sea Gull Football on the Radio

WICO 1320 AM in Salisbury begins its first season as radio partner for Sea Gull football in 1998. The station is broadcasting each of SSU's five home games this season.

The five games carried live are scheduled for:

September 5 vs. Ursinus

October 10 vs. Chowan

October 17 vs. College of NJ

October 24 vs. Wesley

October 31 vs. W. Maryland

In addition to live play-by-play coverage, each broadcast begins at 12:45 p.m. with a 15-minute pregame show, including comments from Coach Joe Rotellini. A 15-minute postgame show concludes each broadcast.

SALISBURY STATE BEGINS NEW FOOTBALL ALLIANCE

Sea Gulls One of Six Charter Members in Atlantic Central Football Conference

Salisbury State University is one of six charter members in the Atlantic Central Football Conference, which begins play this season. The Sea Gulls join Chowan (NC) College, Ferrum (VA) College, Frostburg State (MD) University, Methodist (NC) College and Wesley (DE) College in the newly-formed league.

This is the first-ever conference affiliation for the Sea Gull football program, which has competed as an independent during its first 26 seasons. Salisbury State's 18 other varsity programs continue to compete as members of the Capital Athletic Conference.

"One of our longstanding goals has been to have all of our intercollegiate programs in a conference," said Dr. Michael Vienna, SSU Director of Athletics. "This affiliation should certainly assist our football program in areas such as scheduling and recognition, especially with team and individual honors. Those are difficult obstacles to overcome, at times, as an independent."

SSU Head Coach Joe Rotellini echoes Vienna's feelings regarding the team's new conference membership.

"We're glad to be affiliated with a conference," said Rotellini. "It certainly makes it easier in regards to scheduling games. It also gives our players something else to play for and adds another set of goals for us to try to achieve. Hopefully, it will also provide our players with greater regional and national recognition."

The ACFC, a football-only conference, begins play this season, but will not name its first champion until the 1999 season. The conference will award weekly and postseason honors in 1998. Weekly awards will include an offensive, defensive and rookie of the week honoree. Postseason honors will include a first and second team all-conference squad, as well as an offensive, defensive and rookie of the year selectee. Mike Welch, commissioner of the Dixie Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, will also serve as commissioner of the Atlantic Central Football Conference.

The Sea Gulls played four of the five other conference members in 1997, with a victory against Chowan and losses to Frostburg State, Methodist and Wesley. The Sea Gulls have not played Ferrum since the 1990 season.

Salisbury State has a 135-112-4 all-time record through 26 years, with 14 winning seasons and five postseason appearances. The Sea Gulls advanced to the Amos Alonzo Stagg Bowl, the NCAA Division III Championship Game, in 1986, and also made NCAA Tournament appearances in 1983 and 1985. SSU also played in the ECAC Southwest Bowl Game in 1995 and the Coco Bowl in Puerto Rico in 1976.

JOE ROTELLINI -- Head Coach

The 1998 season marks Joe Rotellini's ninth year as head coach of the Salisbury State University football program. He has coached more games and had the longest tenure of any coach in Sea Gull football history. A dedicated student of the game and a tireless worker, Rotellini takes pride in every area of the Sea Gull program, both on and off the field. His meticulous preparation is well known to his players, from the first day of preseason practice to the final second of the season finale. In between, he expects his players to practice hard, play with intensity and remain positive all of the time.

"We want quality people involved in our program," says Rotellini. "We want to recruit and retain young men who will represent Salisbury State University with class, both on and off the field."

Rotellini already had an impressive resume of coaching credentials when he took the reins as Salisbury State's head coach in 1990. He spent 12 years as an assistant coach, including two years (1985-86) as an assistant previously at SSU. The Sea Gulls advanced to the NCAA Division III playoffs in both seasons, finishing as the national championship runnersup in 1986.

The Sea Gulls have had five teams invited to postseason play during the program's first 25 seasons, and Rotellini has been associated with three of those squads. In addition to qualifying for the NCAA playoffs in '85 and '86 with Rotellini serving as an assistant, the Gulls earned a bid to the ECAC playoffs in 1995 and finished as the Southwest Championship runnersup.

A native of McDonald, PA, Rotellini, 43, holds an associate degree from Anne Arundel Community College in Maryland, and received his Bachelor of Arts in physical education and health from Bethany (WV) College in 1977. He later earned his Master of Education in administration and supervision from Loyola (MD) College in 1982.

Rotellini began his football coaching career at Anne Arundel CC as an assistant coach in 1978. He then moved to Glen Burnie (MD) High School as an assistant varsity coach from 1979-84.

In 1984, Rotellini joined the staff at Alfred (NY) University, where he coached the defensive line. One year later, he returned to Maryland and began his first stint with the Sea Gulls. In his initial season at Salisbury, Rotellini coordinated a defense that was ranked 15th in the nation in rushing defense. The following year, with primary duties as offensive line coach, he helped the Gulls achieve national rankings of second in total offense, third in rushing offense and eighth in scoring offense.

Rotellini joined the staff at Shippensburg University in 1987, assuming the position of assistant head football coach. He coordinated all administrative duties for the Red Raider football program in addition to his on-field coaching duties with the offensive line. SU was the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference's Western Division champion in 1988.

Rotellini is an active member of the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), and serves on several of the organization's committees. He is a member of the AFCA's Division III Executive Council, and also serves on the Championship Competition Committee. Rotellini is a past member of the AFCA's Coach-of-the-Year and all-America selection committees as well. In addition to his positions with the coaches association, Rotellini serves on the NCAA's South Regional Advisory Committee and is also a member of the National Football Foundation.

In addition, Rotellini is a past president of the Anne Arundel County Coaches Association and an active member in the Salisbury Optimist Club. He is a frequent speaker at football clinics and sports banquets throughout the region, and serves as an instructor and coordinator at several different football camps each summer. He also makes numerous local speaking appearances each year as a popular member of the SSU Speakers Bureau. Joe and his wife Liz reside in Salisbury.

1998 Assistant Coaches

Robb Disbennett
Offensive Coordinator

A former all-America quarterback for the Sea Gulls and a 1996 inductee to SSU's Hall of Fame, Disbennett is in his eighth season on the Salisbury staff. He served as an assistant coach at Central Connecticut State before returning to the Eastern Shore in 1991. Disbennett, who also coaches the quarterbacks, owned virtually every team passing record when he graduated in 1986, and still claims the marks for most touchdown passes in a season and career, highest completion percentage for a season, and most consecutive passes completed. Under Disbennett's leadership, Salisbury State finished ranked 14th in the nation in passing in 1993 and 1994. Robb, who also oversees all of the team's strength training activites and serves as SSU's head baseball coach, resides in Hebron, MD with his wife, Marcy and baby daughter, Mackensie.

Wayne Bradford
Defensive Coordinator

Another former Sea Gull player now in his ninth season as an assistant coach, Bradford is serving in his fifth year as the defensive coordinator. In addition to his overall responsibility for the defense, he also serves as position coach for the defensive secondary. Bradford has worked previously with the defensive line and linebackers, and began his coaching career at SSU as a defensive intern. The Glen Burnie, MD native was an offensive lineman during his Sea Gull playing career. In addition to his football duties, Bradford is the Director of the MBA Program in SSU's Franklin P. Perdue School of Business, as well as an instructor in the school. Wayne and his wife Gwen reside in Ocean Pines, MD with their baby son Nicholas.

Rob Grande
Special Teams Coordinator

Grande is now in his seventh season on the coaching staff and serving his fourth year as the special teams coordinator. Grande concluded his playing career as SSU's placekicker in 1991, finishing second on the squad in scoring that season with 31 points. He converted 16 of 18 extra point attempts and succeeded on five of eight field goals. He has also served as the team's kicking coach, linebackers coach and special teams assistant during his coaching tenure with the Gulls. Grande works as a math instructor in the Wicomico County Public School System. He and his wife Penny live in Salisbury.

Kevin Vail
Defensive Line

Returning for his fourth year as a member of the staff, Vail will have primary responsibility for the defensive line this season. Vail, a four-year letterman for the Sea Gulls, was one of the anchors on Salisbury's defensive line during his playing career. The Bel Air, MD native played in all nine games for the Gulls as a senior in 1994, starting eight, and finished with 32 tackles, including one for loss. Kevin is single and lives is Salisbury.

Marc Hannah
Linebackers

A four-year letterman and three-year starter who capped his career by earning AFCA All-America honors at linebacker, Hannah is now in his third season as an assistant coach. Hannah, a two-year team captain, finished tied for the team lead in tackles in 1995 with 81. Hannah also scored his first career touchdown as a senior by returning a fumble against Newport News. In addition to his duties with the linebackers, Hannah serves as monitor for the team's study hall. Marc and his wife Shannon live in Salisbury.

Ross Hannon
Defensive Assistant/Secondary

A former Sea Gull letterman who capped his career in 1995, Hannon returns this fall for his second season as an assistant coach. Hannon, a defensive back, made his primary mark as one of the key members of the SSU special teams. The native of Ellicott City, MD works primarily with Coach Bradford as an assistant with the secondary while also assisting with the scout team.

Len Annetta
Running Backs

The most prolific passer in Sea Gull history, Annetta returns to the staff this fall after a one year stint as a coach at Calvert (MD) High School. Annetta, a 1994 graduate and two-year captain for the Gulls, will be serving his third season overall as an SSU assistant. Annetta also worked for one season on the staff at William & Mary. The Dallas, PA native set 11 SSU passing records during his career. He and his wife Jen reside in Salisbury.

Jim Sinsel
Tight Ends/Assistant Offensive Line

A former player and coach at West Liberty (WV) State, Sinsel begins his first season as an assistant with the Sea Gulls this fall. He has spent the last three years serving as the tight ends and assistant offensive line coach at his alma mater. He will have primary duties with those positions once again this season. A native of Weirton, WV, Sinsel is also pursuing his master's degree at SSU. He is single and lives in Salisbury.

1998 Season Outlook

SEA GULLS FEATURE MORE EXPERIENCED LINEUP

A year ago, the Sea Gulls entered their season-opener with a relatively new cast of characters, familiar perhaps to only their families and to the Salisbury State coaching staff that had spent day and night with them throughout the two-week preseason. Incredibly, despite the presence of 40 returning lettermen, the Sea Gulls returned just one offensive starter and one defensive starter for the 1997 opener.

As a result of last year's team makeover, Coach Joe Rotellini begins the 1998 preseason with a roster full of experienced players and returning starters. The Gulls lost just two starters on offense and five on defense from the lineup that took the field for the 1997 finale, a 16-14 victory over William Paterson. Key players return at virtually every position, with 55 letterwinners expected back when preseason camp begins on August 23.

A closer look at the Sea Gulls, by position:

Quarterback

For the first time in five seasons, the Gulls expect to begin the season with a returning starter at this position. Sophomore Matt Main, who started the last eight games of the season, should return to that spot, barring any unforseen developments during the preseason. Main passed for 1,125 yards and five touchdowns as a freshman, while completing 48% of his passes.

Two other players who were on the team last year but saw no game action, Ray D'Ambrosio and Jared McCutchen, will likely contend for the top backup position. Both players retain their full four years of eligibility.

Running Back

The Sea Gulls have a number of possibilities at this position as they look to replace Mac James, last year's offensive team MVP. James rushed for 761 yards, the highest single-season total in four years and the second highest by a running back during Rotellini's tenure with the Gulls.

The leading candidate entering the preseason is probably junior Myron Dent, who sat out last year. Rotellini is counting on Dent to return to the form he displayed in 1996, when he closed the year with a 139-yard, five-touchdown performance against Sue Bennett. Dent finished with 316 yards rushing that season on just 41 carries, a whopping 7.7 yds/rush average.

Sophomore Jamal Avery, last year's top backup, will have a chance to gain more time this season. Avery played in all nine games, netting 96 yards on 39 attempts last year.

The Gulls have a number of other candidates among the newcomers who will vie for playing time. Transfer Tony Ellis and freshman Josh Bergey may offer the most immediate help.

Traditionally a proponent of the one-back offense, Rotellini may utilize a two-back look a bit more frequently this season if he can settle on a fullback during the preseason. Sophomore Rob Evans, who caught five passes as a tight end last season, may be among the candidates considered.

If SSU retains its primarily one-back set, Rotellini hopes to use a three-man rotation in the backfield.

Receivers

The Gulls return three of their top four pass receivers from last year, led by junior Mike Moss and senior Brian Doyle. Moss led the squad with 23 receptions last year, including two touchdowns. He operates primarily out of the H-Back position, serving as the man-in-motion much of the time. Doyle, who returns for his third season as a starter, had 17 catches for 139 yards and one touchdowns last year. He is a dangerous target on the outside who is an elusive runner once he catches the ball.

Senior Ron Owens, who caught three passes, and junior Craig Cohen, who had two catches last year, should both fill bigger roles this season.

The Sea Gulls have perhaps more depth at the tight end position than they've ever had during Rotellini's tenure. Junior Doug Batten emerged as a strong receiving threat last year, catching 13 passes for a team-high 211 yards. Sophomore Josh Stark, who saw ample playing time as the number two tight end last year, is also back. In addition, junior Ryan Brooks, who sat out last season after starting his first two years, also returns. Brooks led the Gulls with 37 receptions in 1996.

Offensive Line

A year ago, the Gulls faced the prospect of having to rebuild the offensive line. This year, SSU returns eight of its top 10 linemen from 1997, including four of five starters from the season finale. Senior Rick Trinidad (6-1, 285) and sophomore Jim Kirk (6-0, 260) will probably return to the tackle positions. Junior Ken Schuckle (6-0, 235), who finished the year at center, can play there or at guard. Fellow junior Eric Morgan (6-0, 240) will likely return to the other guard position.

Three other returnees, all sophomores, are among the other veterans who saw playing time last season. Larry Holmes (6-1, 235), Steve Lee (6-0, 240) and Kevin Gilligan (6-1, 235) will all contribute once again.. Rotellini likes to utilize an eight-man rotation for games, with players versatile enough to play several positions, as needed.

Defensive Line

The unit returns two starters from last year's season finale and six players who were featured on the two-deep depth chart. The top candidates at the inside tackle positions are junior John Reynolds (6-0, 220) and senior captain Mike Francingues (6-4, 250). Reynolds started seven of nine games while finishing with 21 tackles. Francingues started two games and finished with 23 tackles. Sophomore Aaron Rogan (6-0, 240) also saw duty last year and should fill a bigger role this season.

Sophomores Khalid Attia (6-2, 210), Jerald Boyd (6-1, 230) and Joshua Mason (6-3, 215) are among the top returnees at defensive end. Attia started eight of nine games as a freshman and finished tied for the team lead with four sacks. Boyd finished with 16 tackles in seven games, with three starts. Mason emerged during the season's second half and should see greater playing time this fall.

Linebackers

Three of the six linebackers who saw significant playing time last season are back to lead the unit this year. Senior captain Scott MacRobbie, who made an immediate impact as a junior transfer in 1997, will likely fill the middle. He finished second on the team in tackles last year with 57. Sophomore Jamie O'Kelley, who finished with 15 tackles while playing in eight games, will either share time with MacRobbie in the middle or move to one of the outside positions. Junior Tim Gentry returns as a starter at the other outside position. Junior Cory Brown, a contributor at cornerback last year, begins the preseason as a linebacker. The Gulls will look for three others to fill the rotation from among the newcomers.

Secondary

Senior cornerback Tony Hill returns as a three-year starter and the most experienced member of the secondary. Hill, who also saw spot duty on offense, finished with 24 tackles, two interceptions and three touchdowns last season.

Sophomore Sean Fitzpatrick , who started seven games, is also back. He finished with 28 tackles from his strong safety position last year. Three other returnees also saw significant playing time in 1997. Sophomore Rob Howes, who shared time with Fitzpatrick, finished the year with 34 tackles and three interceptions. Sophomores Aubrey Harrisonand Stanley Walker will likely have bigger roles at the safety positions. Sophomore Seth Haskins, who gained 78 yards on 23 carries at running back last season, moves to the secondary this year.

Specialists

Sophomore Ryan Pusey, who handled the placekicking duties for the final five games of the 1997 season, enters the season listed first on the depth chart. Pusey was 1 of 6 on field goals and 7 of 8 on extra points. The Gulls will use the preseason to find a punter.

WR Brian Doyle serves double duty as the team's primary kick return specialist. He has finished among the national punt return leaders in each of the past two seasons. He will likely be joined by Tony Hill on kickoff returns. Hill averaged 32.2 yds on six returns last season.

Coach Rotellini's Assessment

"Offensively, we hope to be better. We may try using the two-back set a bit more, but that depends on who emerges during preseason camp. We also want to establish a go-to receiver.

"Defensively, we need to develop some depth across the board. Defense was the strength of our team last year. There's no individual stars, but the guys who are coming back can all play.

"Overall, we feel good about our returnees on both sides of the ball. We need competent backups to emerge from among the newcomers. Our players believe they can be a good team."

RETURNING PLAYERS TO WATCH

Brian Doyle WR
5-8 165 Senior
Pasadena, MD

A two-year starter and three-year letterwinner, Doyle returns as one of the team's top receivers... Finished with 17 receptions for 139 yards and one TD in '97 after recording 14 catches for 284 yards in 1996...His 20.3 yds/catch average was best on the team that season...Doyle also ranks among the top kick returners in the nation...He averaged 13.7 yds on punts last year, including a 64-yard touchdown at Delaware Valley...He also averaged 24.9 yds on kickoffs with a 90-yard touchdown return at Chowan...Doyle serves as one of the team captains in 1998.

Mike Francingues DL
6-4 250 Senior
Brandywine, MD

Emerged last season as one of the team's top linemen and is expected to serve as one of the anchors on that unit again in 1998...Played mostly at the tackle position but could also see action at defensive end...Finished third among the linemen and eighth overall on the defense with 23 tackles... He also finished third in sacks with three for -24 yards, while adding four other tackles for loss... Francingues led the Sea Gulls with three fumble recoveries last season...One of the team captains in 1998.

Mike Moss TE
6-2 205 Junior
Olney, MD

Finished as the team's leading receiver last season with 23 receptions for 184 yards and two touchdowns...Caught a season-high six passes, including a touchdown, against Delaware Valley... Also finished with five receptions and a touchdown vs. Methodist...Had his longest reception, a 26-yarder, at Western Maryland... A two-year starter who had 12 catches as a freshman in 1996.

Tony Hill DB
5-9 170 Senior
Mechanicsville, MD

One of the team's fastest players, he started all nine games at cornerback in 1997...Finished the season with 24 tackles and four pass breakups... Hill, who also saw spot duty on offense last year, finished the season with three touchdowns scored...His first came on a 21-yard interception return at Ursinus...He scored the second on a 61-yard pass reception vs. Methodist...He completed the trifeckta with an 80-yard kickoff return TD at Chowan...Hill finished the season with 265 all-purpose yards, third best on the team, and a 32.2 yard average on six kickoff returns.

Matt Main QB
6-0 175 Sophomore
Middletown, MD

Returns as the incumbent at the quarterback position after starting the final eight games of the 1997 season...Completed 96 of 201 passes for 1,125 yards and five touchdowns as a freshman... Highlights from his first season included a 179-yard, two-touchdown effort against Methodist, and a season-best 189 yard performance vs. Wesley which included a 62-yard TD pass, his longest of the year...Last year's experience should make him more comfortable in directing SSU's Multiple Pro offense this season.

Scott MacRobbie LB
6-1 240 Senior
Sloatsburg, NY

Joined the Sea Gulls as a junior transfer from Montgomery (Md) JC last year and finished second on the team in tackles with 57...Started eight of nine games at middle linebacker...Led the team with five tackles for loss while adding three pass breakups...Had season-highs of 10 tackles in the victory at Chowan, nine tackles at Western Maryland and eight tackles in the win at Ursinus...Will be one of the leaders on the defense in 1998 and one of the team's tri-captains.

DID YOU KNOW . . .

☞ SSU meets Alfred for the first-time ever this season. The Gulls are 43-24 alltime against opponents in their first-ever meeting.

☞ Matt Main is the first returning starter at quarterback since Len Annetta in 1993.

☞ Last year's official attendance of 2,113 for the Frostburg game was the sixth-highest at Sea Gull Stadium since the facility opened in 1981. Estimated crowd figures are not ranked among the alltime largest crowds.

☞ SSU has a 28-30-2 alltime record against teams from the New Jersey Athletic Conference and a 4-2 mark against opponents from the Centennial Conference. The Gulls play four games against teams from those two conferences in 1998.

☞ The Sea Gulls are 13-13 alltime in both homecoming day games and in season-opening games. SSU has won its last two season-openers.

☞ Tony Hill has two kickoff return touchdowns in his career, both against Chowan. He scored on an 80-yard return last year after setting a school-record for longest return with a 98-yarder as a freshman.

☞ Five of SSU's 10 opponents have qualified for postseason play in at least one of the past two seasons: Ursinus, Frostburg, College of NJ, Wesley and Western Maryland.

☞ Brian Doyle's career average of 12.8 yards per punt return has him on pace to become SSU's alltime leader in that category.

☞ Salisbury's preseason roster includes just six seniors. The rest of the class breakdown features 25 juniors, 31 sophomores, 9 second-year freshman, and 54 incoming freshmen.

☞ WICO 1320 AM will be broadcasting all five of SSU's home games this season. Each broadcast will begin with a 5-minute pregame show at 12:45 and end with a 15-minute postgame show.

☞ Salisbury is playing its first 10-game regular season schedule since 1991. SSU's '98 opponents had a cumulative 53-49 record last season.

☞ SSU's game at Western Maryland last year was its first against an in-state opponent other than Frostburg since playing Bowie State in 1982. The two-year series is unlikely to continue, however, past this season.

☞ Joe Rotellini, now in his ninth season, has coached more games (74) than any other coach in Sea Gull football history.

☞ The Sea Gulls are 29-21 alltime against the five other teams that now join SSU in the new Atlantic Central Football Conference.

☞ SSU and Frostburg will meet for the 26th time in 1998, the longest series in Sea Gull history. SSU holds a 14-11 edge in the series.

☞ The Sea Gulls are playing Methodist and Frostburg in back-to-back games for the eighth consecutive year. SSU is 6-8 in those games.

SEA GULL STADIUM

Sea Gull Stadium Highlights

1981 Sea Gull Stadium becomes the new home for Salisbury State football. The stadium seats 2,000. An estimated 2,200 fans attend the facility's inaugural game, a 7-6 loss to Bowie State on Sept. 19. The Sea Gulls win their first home game on Nov. 7, defeating Delaware State 13-7 before an estimated 3,000. From 1972-80, the Sea Gulls played their home games at Wicomico County Stadium in Salisbury.

1983 An estimated 5,000 fans jam Sea Gull Stadium on Nov. 26 for the first-ever postseason football game in Salisbury, an NCAA tournament semifinal vs. Union. The Sea Gulls fall 23-21, but finish with a then-school-best 10-1-1 record and the team's first trip to the NCAA playoffs.

1984 The official attendance record of 3,567 is set on Oct. 27 as fifth-ranked Salisbury hosts defending NAIA Division I champion Guilford on homecoming day. The date marks the third time this year that the Sea Gulls establish a new attendance record, as 2,439 attend opening day vs. CW Post on Sept. 8, and 2,514 come out for an Oct. 6 game against Glassboro State. For its five-game home schedule, Salisbury draws 11,486 fans, good for a per game average of 2,298; both stadium records.

1985 The Sea Gulls capture their first-ever home playoff victory, a 35-22 win over undefeated Carnegie Mellon in the first round of the NCAA tournament before 1,704 on Nov. 23. Earlier in the year, the Sea Gulls return to Wicomico County Stadium for an "under the lights" battle with cross-state rival Frostburg State on Sept. 28. The largest crowd ever to see a Salisbury-Frostburg game on the Eastern Shore, 2,712, watches the Sea Gulls win, 23-11. Salisbury finishes with its second 10-win season in three years, and boasts a 6-0 mark at home.

1986 Sea Gull Stadium is home to the national runner-up and the Lambert Cup winner, the East's top team in Division III. Salisbury finishes 13-1, falling to Augustana in the Amos Alonzo Stagg Bowl in Phenix City, Ala. Among the school records set are the 13 (consecutive) wins and 11 straight home victories, as the Gulls complete their second consecutive undefeated home schedule. The Sea Gulls win three playoff games on the road to advance to the title game. Mike McGlinchey is named national co-coach of the year by Football Magazine.

1993 Seating capacity increases to 2,500.

1994 An Oct. 22 homecoming crowd of 1,920 witnesses the highest-scoring game in SSU history as the Sea Gulls and Wesley combine for 96 points.

1995 Sea Gull Stadium hosts its first playoff game in 10 years as the Sea Gulls make their first postseason appearance since the 1986 Stagg Bowl. Albright defeats Salisbury, 20-10, in the ECAC Southwest Championship on Nov. 18. Two weeks earlier, 2,443 homecoming fans see the Gulls return home from a month-long road trip and earn a 12-2 victory over Catholic on Nov. 4.
